

Summary of the 1st Call for Small project proposals

The 1st Call for Small project proposals in the frame of the Interreg V-A SK-HU Cooperation Programme was a pilot call with limited duration. The applicants had a possibility to submit projects within two priority axis:

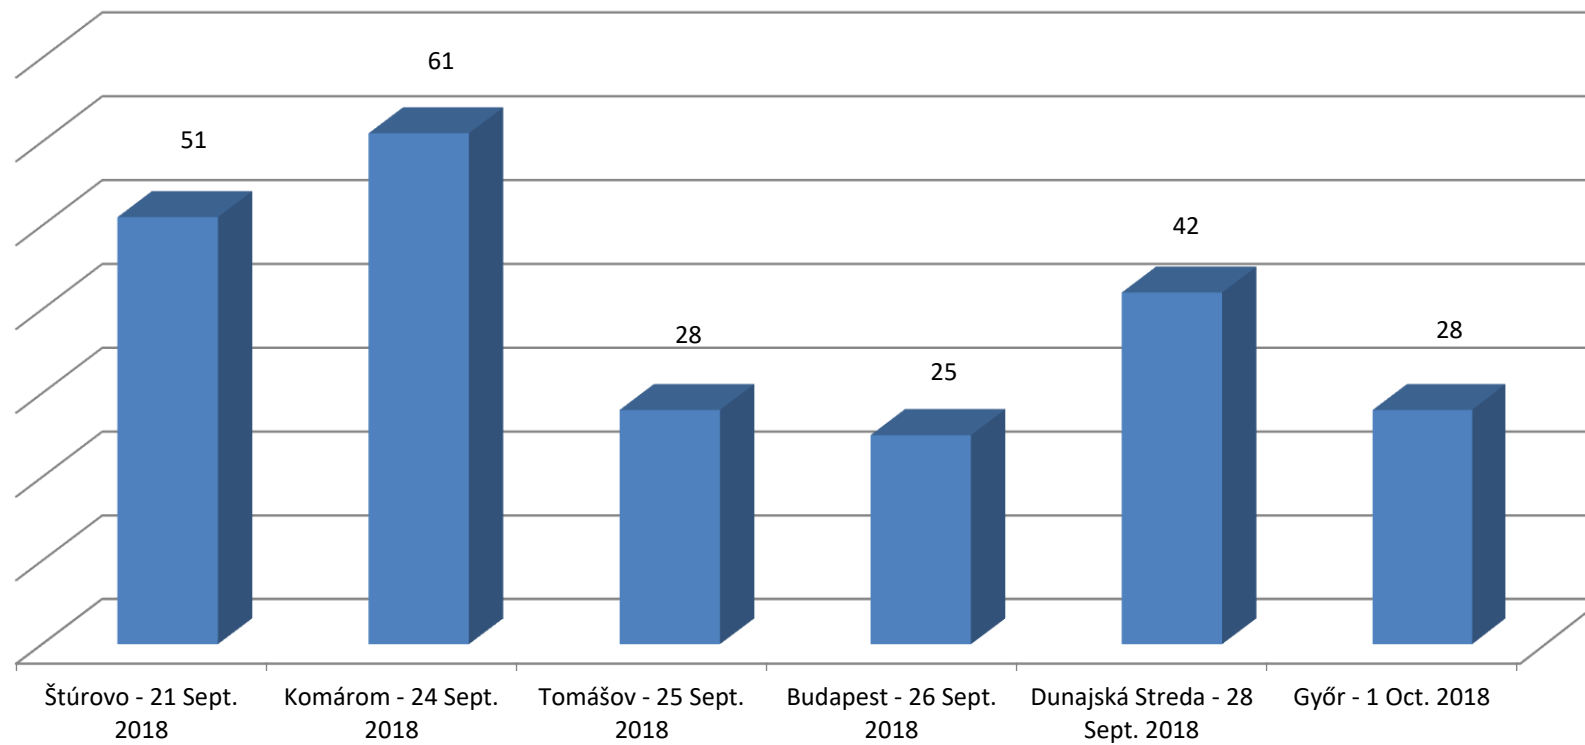

- PA1 - Nature and Culture
- PA4 - Enhancing cross-border cooperation of public authorities and people living in the border area

Info days

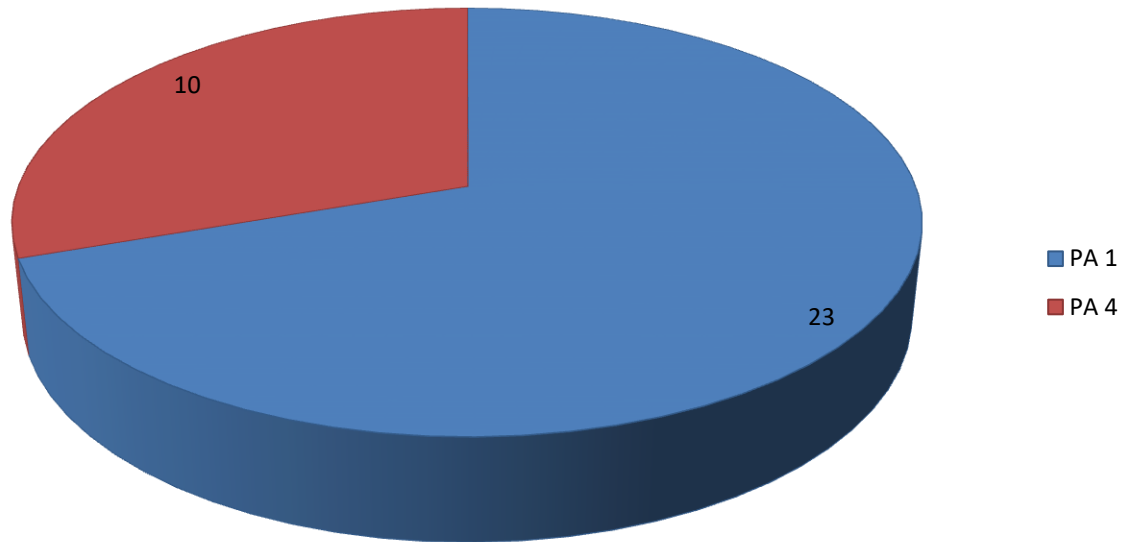

During the call for proposal the Rába-Duna-Vág EGTC organized 6 info days, in all six counties of the Eastern programming area. The total number of participants was 235.

The graph shows the number of participants in each counties:

Number of participants

Submitted projects within each priority axis

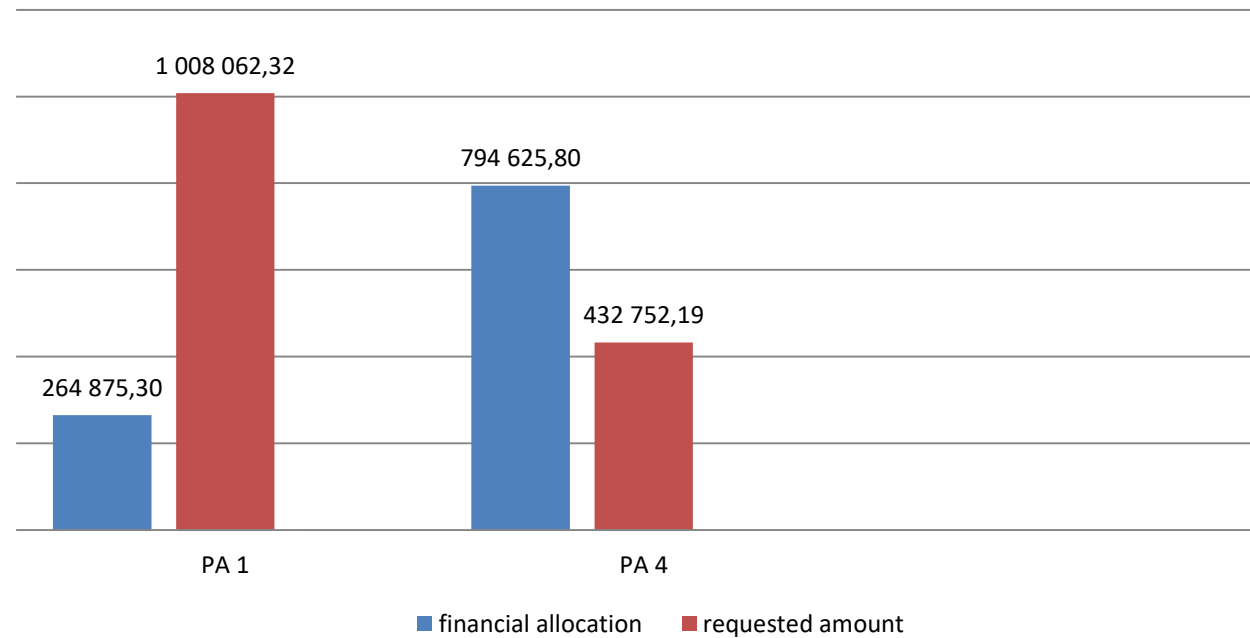

Submitted projects

33 projects were submitted within the 1st call for proposals. The diagram shows the number of submitted projects within each priority axis:

The amount of the financial allocation for 1st call for proposals is 1 059 501,10 € (EFRD). The graph shows the share of the financial allocation and the requested amount:

The share of the financial allocation and the requested amount in €

Currently the administrative assessment is being made. The qualitative assessment is followed by the administrative assessment. During the qualitative assessment the projects are evaluated by two independent assessors. Each assessor may give 100 points. The final score is made by the average of the scores given by the assessors. The final decision about the project proposals is made by the Small project fund Monitoring Committee.

Results are foreseen in the start of the year 2018.